

New Jersey was the 2nd state to pass paid family leave, and the FIRST to pass an inclusive family definition for caregiving. In 2019, NJ expanded the definition of family to include caring for any loved one who is like family. This expansive definition is important for everyone but in particular for LGBTQIA workers. Over half of LGBTQIA adults depend on their chosen family when experiencing a health-related need.